

Brian Germain Canopy Course

Open to ALL LEVELS

“Parachute Flight Safety”

with Parachute Designer and Author Brian Germain
(Author of: The Parachute and its Pilot, Vertical Journey, and Transcending Fear)

The course primarily targets canopy skills and understanding as the primary subject matter, from the perspective of a parachute designer. Brian will, however, adapt the class to incorporate anything the hosts believe to be appropriate, as well as shaping the subject matter to fit each particular group of students. He also includes information on the psychology of survival in high stress situations, a topic on which he has done a great amount of research.

The course fee is $195 per participant, plus Brian's travel expenses.
